FOREWORD

Here, within the pages of this book,
Lives an ideal,
A place to impart basics,
Our planning-house for the future;
We walk through silent halls,
Empty because classrooms are full,
This is the foundation,
The intellectual stimulant;
Here in a land of brick, steel, and stone,
Growing with the dedication of those within,
We see a man clouded with laboratory vapors.
He is progress through knowledge,
Somewhere a student opens a book,
The day the two meet,
Brick, steel, and stone turn to education.
A teacher speaks,
A student listens,
Suddenly a union forms;
Some of us fail before the union,
Others mistakingly accept it as the ultimate goal,
Yet there is always the enlightened mind,
Which seeing knowledge,
Moves toward self-perfection;
This is the final search,
A man on his own,
Working through the dark hours of the night,
Collecting and saving for the future,
Through a lonely and self-satisfying vigil;
Sometime in the future personalities may be forgotten,
But never those ideas which linked them,
These links with truth and knowledge created maturity,
Basic learning applicable to a meaningful life,
A finished work by an educational craftsman,
A person now capable of educating others,
A mobile and dynamic human classroom.

DEDICATION

Here is a true artist,
 A man of principles and perception,
 Forever a light in the future,
 A well for the thirst of knowledge
 Who creates an enthusiasm for learning
 As he moves through and beyond written texts;
 He is a creator of intellectual curiosity
 Who teaches us beyond our limits,
 To analyze and draw conclusions,
 To enjoy and appreciate,
 And in the end,
 How to face the future;
 Here is a smile in the classroom,
 A shaking fist for intellectual freedom,
 A protector of progressing education,
 A chalk symbol on a blackboard,
 Creating no barriers,
 Sometimes liberal,
 Sometimes moderate,
 Always going someplace,
 But never without time to stop and talk;
 A person who deserves the admiration
 Which students so often impart,
 He is an ideal image of a teacher,
 A monument to education.

UNIVERSITY

Many individuals,
Facilities, and ideals,
In unison,
A university

PAST

Old Main gives a solid foundation,
For the basic educational ideals,
Which truth was built on.

PRESENT

From the progress of the past,
Has come the reality of today;
Buildings which were new last year,
Thoughts turned from theory to truth,
A ladder of reality to cling to,
As we climb upward
Toward perfection.

Plans for the future.

FUTURE

There is a new structure,
 Almost complete,
 Which will house women on our campus;
 There is an empty building
 Begging to be filled with tools of knowledge
 And calling for our engineers;
 Men are gathered around a table somewhere,
 They have sealed the fate of the field
 At the corner of 4th and third,
 Old Main has grown too small,
 A classroom building is being raised there;
 Somewhere two men talk in Philadelphia,
 And a new student union is born;
 Day after day,
 Men make plans,
 Fighting for a bright future,
 More library space,
 A place to worship,
 A place to study,
 More room to live,
 More space to grow.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

This has been a year of true school spirit,
Culminating from our leadership campaigns,
And evidenced by a feeling of pride,
Not only by students and faculty,
But also parents, families, and local residents;
Valuable time once necessary for student discipline
Now has been focused on forwarding education;
This was a year marked by peace and tranquility,
With efforts pointed toward building hope,
Not tearing it down;
Most students have found a place,
And worked to or beyond their capacities,
In order to show a job well done,
They have toiled hand in hand with the faculty
For the educational and spiritual betterment of all.

TRADITIONS

BUST OF JOHN MARSHALL

In front of Old Main stands the Bust of John Marshall, after whom the University is named. Our University was founded on his principles and ideals of Equality, Democracy, and Individual Freedom.

OLD BEECH TREE

The Old Beech Tree, standing for more than 300 years, is symbolic of the tree of life and represents the growth of Marshall Academy into the Marshall University of today. If it could only talk, it could tell many stories from the Civil War until now of the thousands of students that succeeded at Marshall and went on to greater achievements. Many of the initials you see on this tree located in front of Old Main were carved decades ago.

HONORS SEMINAR

There is always a question of recognition
To be bestowed on deserving students;
The Honors Seminar and Convocation program
Not only recognize achievement and merit,
But also form a new program of study,
Which links kindred minds
In a search for new discoveries.

USSR was the discussion topic for first semester.

CAMPUS CHRISTIAN CENTER —

PROCTER PROJECT

On Saturday morning, underprivileged children to the vicinity come here to play, learn, and for fellowship under the supervision of University students.

Many and varied are the meetings held here.

"In the still of the night."

Within the Campus Christian Center,
Lives the Christian spirit of our campus;
Here, students and faculty,
Learn to recognize their responsibility under God;
It is a building full of the spirit of working together
As Christians during the day-to-day life of the University;
A place to voice questions and talk of faith;
A house of Christian truth and study.

Perhaps an inspiration.

SCIENCE BUILDING

Faces of our great American heritage
Adorn the front of the Science Building;
They are strong and inquisitive,
Not unlike the students who enter these doors;
Here we find laboratories, classrooms,
Museums, auditoriums, libraries,
A radio station and a photo-lab;
Most of all,
In the midst of strange odors and sounds,
Are students learning basic natural principles
Of life and our universe.

Basic facts are revealed through close observation.

University research is a walking dream
 Which enables faculty and students to go beyond the classroom
 Into work which prepares them for the future;
 Original experimentation cannot be found in books,
 For there is no substitute for a searching mind;
 These long and tedious hours,
 Spent with the test tube, rat-maize, and guinea pig,
 But sometimes in the future,
 There is always honor.

Lloyd Kiff, examines a specimen from a collection of birds which he and three other Marshall students made on an expedition to Guatemala in 1963. Kiff was co-leader of the group which gathered data on taxonomy, distribution, and ecological preferences of Central American Birds. Upon complete analysis of their data the group will publish the results of their study in a scientific journal.

Daniel Christian is doing research to determine the rearrangement products of branched dialkyl acetylenes in the presence of sodium amide. This work is under the direction of Dr. John H. Wotiz.

Bruce Robertson is studying an organic compound on the infrared spectrophotometer. With this device he can identify compounds and determine purity. This device is used widely in organic chemistry research to help identify new products.

RESEARCH

Walter W. Kanzler is studying Photosensitivity and Learning in Dugesia tigrina. The purpose of this study is to determine whether or not planarian worms can distinguish different wave lengths of light. A "Y" maze is used so the worms can make a choice between light of two different wave lengths. This research is in a relatively new area of biology called "psychobiology."

Our library is a vast knowledge store
Where students enter,
And seldom leave empty handed;
Rows of books
Voice histories of thought,
Past, present, and future;
Offering an opportunity to share a natural wealth of knowledge
Provided by conscientious educators;
Here is a means of self improvement
Which reaches beyond the classroom.

"Seek and ye shall find."

ALBERT GALLATIN JENKINS LABORATORY SCHOOL

STUDENT LIFE

Summer school really traveled this year. These students connected with the Spanish Department traveled to Spain. Among the Marshall students were Joyce Harshbarger, Karen Meeves, Ruth McDonald, Alice Patton, Jack Kindle, Mrs. Fors, In Kum Choi, and Mary Alice Stevens.

Is this the kind of studying one has to do in summer school?

SUMMER SCHOOL

The summer theater was also very active with the children's production of Hansel and Gretel under the direction of Dr. Hoak.

A refreshing early morning hike to devotionals.

Rev. Lander Beal led the morning devotionals.

Tom Tweel was among the leaders at Leadership Camp.

LEADERSHIP CAMP

These are our "Leaders"?

Peter, Paul, Mary, and Almond Joy entertained at the campfire.

Now the fun begins.

I hope all my classes aren't filled.

REGISTRATION

Let's play "Follow the Leader."

Smile for an ID? It won't help.

There must be an easier way of doing this.

The home stretch!

First, there is an assembly to get acquainted with college life.

FRESHMAN WEEK

Freshman week is expected and somewhat anticipated by most incoming students. Little did the class of 1967 realize how a hectic week of tests, meetings, tours, and lectures could help in their adjustment to college life.

But after one meeting, there is always another!

President's Reception

Meeting the right people at the right time are our Freshman girls.

Getting acquainted with faculty and staff is another important phase of Freshman Week.

Most freshmen thought registration was the grand finale of their confusing week, but the first week of classes proved otherwise. Beanies, name tags, the Alma Mater, fight song, and other items had to be worn or sung when requested. Finally, it ended with the rope contest, and our Freshmen have continued to live with the "Spirit of Marshall."

Beanies are necessary!

Of course, the entire Freshman Week is not hectic! There is fun shared by all at a Union Hootenanny.

Decorating is quite a job.

STORY OF A DANCE

AT THE

Skip Young and Dave Davidson add a new decoration of their own.

RESIDENCE HALL

Billie Jo Heater and Carol Jean Hoilman will be in style in their costumes.

Although there is much preparation for a dance, one can see that the work turns into fun.

In previous years the Residence Hall for Men didn't have many parties, but this year was different. The men in the dorm gaily decorated the entire first floor of their hall with crepe paper twisters, pumpkins, straw, and even skeletons. Some of the couples dressed in costumes to match the atmosphere of the hall and fun was surely had by all.

Of course, there must be time for rest from all that strenuous exercise!

THE STORY OF A PLAY

Oh, what a mess!

Watch it, Larry!

I can't get too much of the spilled paint in this can.

Mike Ferrell dresses for opening night.

Applying make-up is one of the important jobs in the production of a play.

What constitutes a good play? It's the people—behind the stage, and on the stage. Everyone must work diligently in order to make the play a success. Success is golden when an audience observes such a play as A Lady's Not For Burning.

Last minute preparation before the final product.

The final product is a scene from one of Marshall's best plays, A Lady's Not For Burning.

PEGGY TUCKER

In Marshall's annual Homecoming election Miss Peggy Tucker of Bluefield, West Virginia, was chosen to reign as Homecoming Queen. Peggy presided over all of the festive events during this very special weekend. Reigning with her were attendants from the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes and there were also two new additions this year—attendants from the Logan and Williamson Branches.

Peggy is very active in many campus activities, and winning contests is nothing new to her. Peggy was chosen as junior class attendant in last year's Homecoming election, was named as Miss Bluefield and was a member of the court of West Virginia's Centennial queen.

FROSH ELECTIONS

Freshman elections are very important to these new students of Marshall University because they serve to introduce them to the very active campus life and the many activities that they may participate in. The campaigning for the various offices was rough and very imaginative. All the students who ran for office—the ones who won and the ones who lost—show the spirit and pep that will make them good Marshall students.

A big part of the election is being pounced on by the hopeful candidates.

He must have gotten stuck in the box.

Weejuns, swings and sales talks are all part of the campaign procedure.

They aren't really checking for smuggled goods, are they?

Instead of kissing babies, they just shake hands.

FAGUS

Judy Hurley, Elizabeth Tweel, Shirley Campbell, Vickie Smith, Marna Pauloviks, Marda Wilson, Sara Lipscomb, Gloria Chafin, Dean Buskirk, and Mrs. Stewart H. Smith.

Fagus, senior women's honorary, is as symbolic as the beech tree for which it was named. Every spring nine to twelve junior women become members. It is the highest honor a Marshall woman can achieve.

PERSHING RIFLES

Row 1: K. Collins, C. Jordon, H. Dodd, Wm. Samuels, P. J. Mayer, C. Campbell, T. Milton, M. Bergin, P. Johnson. Row 2: J. Johnson, L. Ogden, J. Ward, F. Jadick, A. Frye, J. Sinnette, G. Hamrick, J. DeFoe, D. O'Kane, J. Chancey. Row 3: R. Blaine, R. Taylor, D. Jones, C. Barnett, M. King, T. Owens, F. Haeberle, R. Adkins, J. Williams.

The Pershing Rifles is a national military fraternity for members of the basic course of ROTC. Company N-1 of Marshall participates in many events such as parades, serving as honor guards, ushering at basketball games, etc. The company is divided into an exhibition platoon, which performs fancy drill, and a straight drill platoon, which does regular drill. Each year the PR sponsors the Marshall Invitational Drill Meet for other PR in Regiment 1.

SCABBARD AND BLADE

Scabbard and Blade is the highest military honorary at Marshall for junior and senior cadets. The company assumes many responsibilities within the Battle Group such as sponsoring the food and clothing drive and the military ball. The company also accepts responsibility of running the blood drive as smoothly as possible.

"Believing that military service is an obligation of citizenship, . . . the greater opportunities afforded college men for the study of military science place upon them certain responsibilities as citizens." sums up the ideals of Company K-12.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Seated, from left to right: Eric Core, Gloria Chaffin, Patrica Hogg Anderson, Dr. L. Nuzum, advisor. Standing: Ted Willey.

Kappa Delta Pi, an Honor Society in Education, was founded to advance the interests of education as a profession. Phi Chapter at Marshall University was organized in June 1923, just two years following the graduation of the first degree class. Paralleling the growth of the University, Phi Chapter has continued to exert its influence in educational circles. Many of its members are holding influential positions in the educational field. Four presidents, seven deans, and a number of Marshall instructors have been members of Phi Chapter at different times.

The objectives of the society are to honor scholarship and to recognize evidence of dedication to the success in the field of education. It holds four ideals before its members: The Ideal of Science, the Ideal of Fidelity to Humanity, the Ideal of Service, and the Ideal of Toil. Membership is open to eligible juniors, seniors, and graduate students who are education majors or who are actively engaged in educational endeavors.

SIGMA DELTA PI

Seated, left to right: Marsha Sue Black, Mrs. Pat Harrison, Vicki Smith, Paige Estler, Judy Bowen. Standing: Mr. John Miller, advisor Dale Terrell.

Sigma Delta Pi is the national Spanish honorary fraternity, open to all Spanish majors who meet its requirements. The purposes of the organization are "to foment a wider knowledge of and a greater love for the Hispanic contributions to modern culture; to provide a nucleus for Spanish language student activities; to foster friendly relations and the cooperative spirit between the English and Spanish-speaking nations; and to reward those who show special attainments and interests." La Sociedad Hispanica, the Spanish Club, furthers the interest of students not necessarily majoring in Spanish.

ALPHA BETA ALPHA

Alpha Beta Alpha is the national undergraduate library science fraternity which exists for the purpose of furthering the professional knowledge of its members, promoting fellowship, and as a recruiting agency for librarians. The Nu Chapter, established at Marshall University in 1956, currently has eleven active members, two professional members, and ten pledges. The standing project of the Nu Chapter is the library in the Marshall University Campus Christian Center.

Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honorary for college men was founded December 3, 1914, at Washington and Lee University. The organization recognizes and encourages the achievement of character and superior quality, scholarship and leadership. Membership is as much an obligation and responsibility in citizenship as it is a most high distinction and honor. To be eligible for ODK, a student must be a junior or senior and have sufficient points in scholarship, athletics, and the other arts. ODK sponsors many projects designed to benefit the University. Members have built the ODK Circle, Victory Bell Tower, a sidewalk in front of the library, and the Student Union Trip Board. Each spring they combine with Fagus in sponsoring a high school leadership conference on the campus.

ODK was originally founded to provide an honor society for men who are active in school life, as well as being scholars. Membership is the highest honor a male student can receive.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

AMERICAN HOME ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION

The American Home Economics Association is the professional organization for home economic majors. The object of the association is to develop and promote standards of home and family life that will best further individual and social welfare.

STUDENT NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION

The Marshall University Student Education Association is an organization for those students in Education preparing to teach. The monthly programs are designed to develop professional attitudes which may not be gained in the classroom.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Women's Athletic Association is an organization for all girls interested in intramural sports. Membership is not limited to physical education majors. Some of the group's activities include delivering a food basket to a needy family at Christmas, sponsoring two High-School Play Days, and two annual outings for club members.

OFFICERS: Kathy Nickell, Elaine Thompson, Judy Cunningham, Marge Holley, Peg Kirk, Bobbie Green.

LITTLE SISTERS OF MINERVA

Little Sisters of Minerva is a national organization founded by Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The girls are pin-mates of SAE's or those girls who have shown an outstanding interest and loyalty to the chapter. The purpose of Little Sisters is to support the fraternity's activities.

Officers are: Mary Wilson, Kay Collins, Brenda Fidler, Becky Morris, Sandy Rutherford, Vicki Gwinn.

Little Sisters are busy cleaning trophies.

They are sorting clothes for one of their many projects.

EVANGELICAL UNITED BRETHREN STUDENT MOVEMENT

MEMBERS: Steven Goodman, Patty Smith, Judy Shearer, Carolyn Lieving, Jim Parker, Dick Cottrill, Bonnie Reed, Katherine Davis, Nancy Hickman, Don Cottrill.

The E.U.B. Student Movement is a Christian fellowship primarily for the students on campus although anyone may attend the group's functions. Its purpose is to provide times of fellowship and times of sharing of ideas on the deeper meanings of faith. This is accomplished through weekly meetings at the chapel and monthly social events.

BETA ALPHA MU

Beta Alpha Mu is a local professional fraternity organized to foster the study of business and economics at Marshall University. It was founded in the spring of 1961 by a small group of business students and has grown steadily to its present membership of twenty-eight active members. Beta Alpha Mu is hoping to become affiliated with a national professional business fraternity.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION MAJORS CLUB

The purpose of the club is to promote interest and concern for advancement in health, physical and recreational education. Greater social and professional cooperation among students and faculty is cultivated by close relationship.

MARSHALL UNIVERSITY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Marshall graduates and former students comprise a growing and active Alumni family. Administered through the Office of Development and Alumni Affairs, the Alumni program helps keep Alumni in contact with former classmates, keeps Alumni informed on current University affairs, and encourages continuing support of the University. The Marshall Foundation, Inc., administers Federal and corporate grants received by the University, as well as scholarship and loan funds. The Alumni Office also supports and works closely with student groups in activities such as Homecoming and Parents Weekend.

President Smith speaks to Alumni and friends at Annual Dinner Meeting of the 1963 Alumni Day Program which included several Reunion Classes.

The 1963 Queen's Float featuring Miss Marshall (Peggy Tucker '64) and her attendants is characteristic of Homecoming which the Alumni Association helps sponsor and plan.

Student assistants are busily engaged with their various chores in the Office of Development and Alumni Affairs.

M.U.'s foreign and most distant Alumni Chapter is in Saigon, Vietnam. Here Captain Norman Powers '51 (left foreground), Captain Fred L. Reid '54 (background wearing glasses), and Major Zeke Wilder '49 are assisting in entertainment of Vietnamese orphans during Christmas season.

Some members of M.U.'s Northern Panhandle Chapter as they met in Wheeling, W. Va., last Fall. Carl Goen '50 (standing at end of table) was president at the time.

TRAVEL — WORK — LEARN IN GERMANY

The German Club prepares in winter 1963-64 for a TWL PROJECT, which means Travel, Work, and Learn for the summer 1964. One-hundred and thirty University students will leave June 1 for Germany by a jet-airliner. While in Europe they will obtain jobs in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. The students will have the opportunity to see some of the most important spots in Central Europe, as well as the chance to improve their linguistical abilities. The group will return to the United States August 30. The project is under the direction of Dr. Walter H. Perl, Professor of German, and will be repeated in future years, if successful this summer.

Special language preparation is needed for the TWL travelers. The German Club organized language classes, under the direction of Dale Terrell, senior language student, to help the students acquire a working knowledge of conversational German.

FOREIGN STUDENTS

LAIDLEY HALL

Named for Marshall University's founder, John Laidley, the Laidley Hall dormitory has been an integral part of the campus since 1937. As in the case of all Marshall dormitories, Laidley strives to be a "home away from home" for each of its residents. Under the leadership of its elected officers, the dormitory participates in sundry activities such as dances. Also, the residents of Laidley Hall each year have a traditional Christmas party which is preceded by a caroling group. Other activities include picnics in the spring and fall, an annual open house, weekly vesper services, the May-pole dance and coronation of a queen to celebrate Parents' Weekend, and a party honoring the graduating students who have spent some of their happiest moments in Laidley Hall.

*Row 1: Janet Berry, Dianne Board, Barbara Diggs, Marilyn Painter, Martha Buckley, Connie Jones.

Study sessions are not always dull . . .

although sometimes it becomes a "clothes session."

The ever present card game.

UNIVERSITY HALL

The smallest of the women's dormitories on campus is University Hall. However, the atmosphere is warm and friendly. Some seventy girls live, sleep, and study in the dormitory. Along with the daily routine of classes, the girls of University Hall always find time for a "gossip session" in someone's room or a snack fixed in Mom Hensley's kitchen. Also included on the annual agenda are such events as the Christmas and Halloween parties, Pizza Parties, and an Open House. All this adds up to one trifle large but happy clan of girls who love living in University Hall, their "home away from home."

LUCY PRICHARD HALL

A new women's dorm was opened in 1955 and named in honor of Lucy Prichard, a former professor at Marshall. The dorm is now a "home away from home" for some two hundred Marshall coeds. Life within the dormitory is governed by a council and is under the supervision of the housemother, Mrs. Bess L. Marple. The girls enjoy many activities together during the year such as dorm dances, Christmas parties, and community service projects. In their leisure time the residents enjoy the television, piano, and hi-fi which are located in the lounge.

Checking the mail box is a daily ritual for the girls of Prichard Hall.

Signing in and out are familiar parts of a dorm girl's life.

Card games are to be found in nearly every room.

HODGES HALL

Hodges Hall is known over the Marshall campus as the stronghold of the mighty male sex, both the superior upperclassmen and the freshman. Late evenings will still find the lights of Hodges burning brightly, as a multitude of tasks — including studying — are being performed. Two dances, one a semester a year, are held by the dorm. The boys are provided with a “treat night” in which they are given two Fat Boys or a pizza and pop. Journalists, economists, psychologists, bridge players, and TV watchers are among the many wide and varied interests in Hodges Hall.

Hootenannies and later a midnight snack are of major interest to the men of Hodges Hall.

Occasionally one must study.

UNIVERSITY

The modern kitchen is delightful for preparing those small meals for hubby.

University Heights, Marshall's new one hundred-eighty acre addition on Route 60, has been under extensive study by a faculty committee. There have been many suggestions as to what the grounds should be used for.

At present there are two large, attractive buildings which provide living accommodations for married couples in the student body. The apartments feature modern living rooms, baths, and an all-electric kitchen the wives appreciate thoroughly. The remainder of the land at the Heights may be used as a "laboratory" for field trips.

HEIGHTS

Every home has one . . .

The couple may add furnishings to the living room according to their particular tastes.

NEW MEN'S RESIDENCE HALL

The New Residence Hall for Men opened its doors in the fall of 1961. It was the newest building on campus and was the only dormitory with its own cafeteria. During the first two years "new-building" problems were corrected. After trial and error, the New Men's Residence Hall, this year, was the quietest, cleanest, and most efficient of the University's housing units. This achievement is due mostly to the efforts of Mr. Robert Putoff, the dormitory director, and his capable staff of counselors who voiced the contributed ideas of the residents.

As part of its social program, the dorm gave a Halloween dance in the building.

SPRING ROTC REVIEW

One highlight of Parents' Weekend is the annual spring ROTC Review. The event includes a pass-in-review and the awards presentations to outstanding cadets in each class and one to the best company.

RIFLE TEAM

Your hand has to be steadier than that, son, if you want to be on the Rifle team.

Squeeze the trigger!
Don't jerk it!

This year's rifle team is ready to defend us.

Sigma Sigma Sigma, Alpha Xi Delta, and Alpha Chi Omega tied for first place in the women's division of Mothers Day Sing with their respective arrangements of "I Feel Pretty," "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing," and "Anthem for Spring."

Sigma Phi Epsilon claimed first place in the men's division with "The New Ashmolean Marching Society and Students Conservatory Band." Sigma Alpha Epsilon, singing "This Is My Country," captured the second place trophy.

Tom Tweel leads the Sig Eps in song.

Other highlights of Parents' Weekend were sorority, fraternity, and dormitory open houses and the crowning of Laidley Hall queen, Joyce Hoke.

PARENTS' WEEKEND

LIFE PLANNING WEEK

"Love, Sex, and Morality" was the topic of discussion during Life Planning Week. The discussion was led by Dr. Richard N. Hey, an educator in the field of marriage and family relations.

After the Life Planning Convocation "fireside chats" were held in the different fraternity and sorority houses and the dormitories. Dr. Hey's topic was discussed more fully at these meetings by leading campus professors.

Four wonderful years of fun and study open our way for this, our Commencement Day.

COMMENCEMENT DAY 1963

The Centennial Year Commencement is o'er and so is our study for a while. Long will we remember our honored guests: Reverend Joseph Duffy, instructor in Social Ethics and Director of the Board of Admissions at Hartford Seminary in Connecticut; Secretary of the Army, Cyrus R. Vance; Jim Comstock, editor of W. Va. Hillbilly; Miles C. Stanley of the W. Va. Federation of Labor; Phylliss Curtin; David L. Francis; John D. Maurice; and Robert Stewart.

As we walked away from the 126th Commencement exercise, we felt a twinge of sadness, a sense of joy, a knowledge that was our's alone.

A sincere, heartfelt thank-you goes to Dr. Smith for his awe-inspiring welcoming ceremony.

Study and hard work, fun and late nights close with the time honored sheepskin from President Smith.

The Reverend Joseph Duffy and Dr. Stewart H. Smith reminisce.

Cyrus R. Vance, Secretary of the Army and a native of West Virginia, delivered the day's address: Mr. Vance received an honorary degree from Marshall.

ALMA MATER

Marshall Gracious Alma Mater,
We thy name revere:
May each noble son and daughter
Cherish thine honor dear.
May thy lamp be ever bright,
Guiding us to truth and light;
As a beacon o'er dark water
This is for thee our prayer.

May the years be kind to Marshall;
May she grow in fame;
May her children fail her never,
True to her beacon flame.
May her spirit brave and strong
Honor right and conquer wrong;
This the burden of our song,
Ever her truth proclaim.

SOCIETY

THE INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

Row 1: Tom Young; Fred Charles; Joe Robertson. Row 2: Jim Marnell; Tom Robinson; Mike Hinkle; Ezra Midkiff; Ralph McBrayer; Jerry Miller; George Wardell.

The I.F.C. is the governing and coordinating body which initiates and directs activities for the nine Greek fraternities on campus. The scope of the Council during 1963-64 included improvement from within by active participation in national and regional IFC functions and by many improvements in its internal policies. Active cooperation with the University and the community has continued to be an important phase of the IFC also. Each year the Council continues to expand and improve. This year has certainly been no exception.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

OFFICERS: Sharon Smith, Nancy Harmon, Lily Wray Naylor, Susan Dawson, and Carole Jackson (not pictured).

Panhellenic is derived from two Greek words, "Pan" meaning "all," and "Hellenic" meaning Greek. Thus, Panhellenic has come to mean an organization of all Greek letter fraternities for women. The Marshall Panhellenic Council is composed of the president and two representatives from each sorority. The Council directs rushing activities and establishes rules which govern the sororities. They also coordinate various activities such as Greek Week, the Mothers' Day Sing, and Homecoming festivities. The Panhellenic Council encourages high scholarship by offering a trophy to the group with the highest over-all average at the end of each academic year. After winning the scholarship trophy for three consecutive years, the sorority is allowed to retain the prize permanently.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA

In September 1963 the Alpha Chi's began their eleventh year on Marshall's campus.

After a highly successful rush season in which they pledged twenty new sisters, A Chi Os had a victorious Homecoming by having two of their sisters chosen as freshman and sophomore queens.

Campus activities found the girls of Alpha Chi holding top positions. They include Panhellenic president, student cabinet, Who's Who, ROTC sponsors, student senate, majorette, and Fagus.

Social events this year included an Indian Pow Wow dance, Red Carnation Ball, a Spring Informal, Golden Lyre Ball, and a Founder's Day Dinner. Also there were fraternity parties, serenades, faculty teas, and alumni parties.

With sixty strong, the Alpha Chis are continually guided by their motto, "Together let us seek the heights."

ALPHA SIGMA ALPHA

The Marshall University chapter of Alpha Sigma Alpha was chartered in May of 1927. Since then the Alpha Sigs have participated in all school activities and this year was no exception. The girls were to be found in honoraries, many were on the deans' lists, and Sara Lipscome was nominated for Who's Who. Also, Barbara Thomas served as varsity cheerleader. Although always striving for scholarship, social functions are a part of every Alpha Sig's life. The annual hayride, the Yuletide Formal, a Spring Week-end, "Le Bal Clair de le Lune," and other seasonal celebrations.

ALPHA XI DELTA

The new addition to their house brought the members of Alpha Xi Delta back with enthusiasm in the fall of 1963 and winning the scholarship cup for the second consecutive year boosted their spirit. In November they worked hard preparing for homecoming and were rewarded by receiving first place with their homecoming sign. Peggy Tucker was chosen Miss Marshall and Peg Shepard was chosen Junior Queen.

The members of this chapter have maintained their ideals of scholarship, friendship, and service by active participation in various organizations on Marshall's campus. They were well represented in such organizations as Student Senate, Who's Who, and Honors Seminar. Alpha Xi Delta also had three varsity cheerleaders, 2 majorettes, and several girls in University plays.

Their philanthropic project for the year was aiding two families at a Christmas party for the children at Stella Fuller Settlement.

The New Pledge Class of '63.

This year has not been all work and no play. Their social activities included "Square-nanny," the "Contemporary Cupid Dance," The Spring Weekend which included the Rose Formal, the Strawberry Breakfast, open house, teas, and many other activities. At the end of a very eventful year the Alpha Xis look forward to a promising next year.

DELTA ZETA

After a summer of planning and preparation, the Delta Zetas returned to their newly remodeled house eager for another year filled with fun and hard work.

Attired in our pretty pink dresses, they went into rush full of anticipation and excitement and were rewarded with twenty-two wonderful new sisters. Delta Zetas are well represented in campus political affairs by having two senators and the vice president of the Student Body. Also, Delta Zeta is proud to have sisters participating in Fagus, The Honors Seminar, many scholastic honoraries, and Who's Who.

A Delta Zeta's social life never stops. Aside from our own social affairs such as their "Winter Fantasy" and Spring Week-end, they share in other campus social events. This year their sisters reign as TKE Sweetheart, Snowball Queen, and ROTC Sponsor.

Delta Zetas work for others in many ways. They sponsor patients at Carville Hospital for victims of Hansen Disease and help support the Gallaudet College for the Deaf. Throughout the year they help underprivileged people in our community.

The officers of Delta Zeta. Newly elected.

Delta Zeta sisters give graduating seniors a farewell party.

SIGMA KAPPA

Early September brought the Sigma Kappas back to Marshall, many returning via leadership camp, for a week long pre-school sorority clinic. Many of our members acted as freshman guides that first week, and as school finally started, campus organizations and honoraries claimed us as members. We were represented in Fagus, Who's Who, cheerleaders, majorettes, Student Senate, Symphonic Choir, ROTC sponsorship, and the Parthenon and Chief Justice Staff.

Several projects during the year included visits to the Foster Memorial Home and the Huntington State Hospital, as well as our participation in our national gerontology project. Some of our social activities have included two informals, the "Spangled Sophistication," a Winter Formal, the annual Sigma Kappa week-end, a Hobo Dinner, and a serenade.

The Sigma Kappas and their dates posed happily during intermission at their formal.

The fall pledge class proudly wears the white dresses and the purple flowers of their sorority.

The circle dance at the Winter Formal seemed to enjoy brief popularity among the Sigma Kappas.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

This year, as always, the members of Sigma Sigma Sigma are proud of their many accomplishments on campus and off. As active participants in various phases of student life, Tri Sigmas were to be found in the Student Government, Student Senate, the cheerleading and majorette corps, the Honors Seminar, Fagus, Alpha Lambda Delta—freshman women's scholastic honorary, Who's Who, and several of the dramatic productions here at Marshall. Claren Brooks served as Senior Class President. In the annual Mother's Day Sing they tied for a first place trophy, and won the Homecoming Car Parade. Also, they can add to their impressive list of achievements Miss Armed Forces, the Military Ball Queen, Miss West Virginia—who won the talent contest in the Miss America Pageant, the Huntington Tobacco Princess, and this year's Miss Chief Justice. Furthermore, a Tri-Sigma was awarded West Virginia's Most Outstanding Collegiate Girl in a national contest. Once again we have joined together to better our own organization and Marshall University.

Danny Egnor was voted Tri-Sigma Man.

The new initiates are a group that Sigma Sigma Sigma will always remember with pride.

The officers of Tri-Sigma lead the path to another illustrious year in our history.

Scene from "Roman Riot"

CAVALIERS INDEPENDENT FRATERNITY

Activities and Alumni, prior to Annual Softball Game.

This year, as in all years, members of the Cavaliers have continued to enjoy the fullest benefits of belonging to Marshall University's only Independent fraternity.

The social calendar, which was as full as college regulations will permit, was highlighted by such particularly outstanding Fraternity Functions as the "Sweetheart Ball," the "Roman Riot," and the "Western Hoedown."

Yet the Cavaliers feel that the importance of even these outstanding social events was overshadowed by the spontaneous activities of the group. The feeling of Brotherhood has never been stronger; the hours spent participating in intramural sports, playing cards until the wee hours of the morning, or any of a half-million other activities of the sort has kept it strong. The Men of Cavaliers hold this year and its activities in fond memory; yet they know that the ahead holds the promise of being better in all respects. So they leave 1963-64 with deep regrets, but also with real optimism. The Men of Cavaliers feel that 1963-64 is a memorable addition to Cavalier History—this thirteenth year of the Cavaliers joins the twelve preceding it as another of the truly great Years of The Cavaliers.

Pledge Father Grob receives the game ball from pledge Goodman following a contest.

Dean Shaw's anecdotes at a pledge activation banquet.

Beta Tau Colony is affiliated with Zeta Beta Tau, one of the strongest national associations in the fraternity system. The men of the Marshall colony took a great step toward becoming a national chapter when they moved into their new home on Sixth Avenue at the outset of this school year. Actively participating in all facets of University and fraternity life — social, cultural, athletic, and scholastic — the closely knit group is continuing to grow and expand their activities. This year was the BT's taking part in numerous intramural sports contests, community service projects such as the Muscular Dystrophy and Easter Seal campaigns, and various cultural programs within the chapter. On the social calendar were several Beta Tau informals, as well as formal and semi-formal dances, while they also sponsored the Second Annual Ess'n Fress dinner, a delicatessen delight enjoyed by a large number of M.U. students and community residents. Looking forward to a date in the near future when they will receive their charter and be recognized as a chapter of Zeta Beta Tau, the men continue to work to better themselves, their university, and their community.

We Veterans sponsored Peggy Tucker this year in her winning of the Marshall title.

Discretion is the better part of valor, we think . . . or so we thought.

OK, lads, never fear, the club is here. Now, where's the fire.

I don't care if your turtle is named Mertle . . . I WON!!

Who says dates are hard to get?

May I have this Dance?

Sorry fellows, I've cast my ballot.

BIG GAME

The Big Green

Last-minute instructions.

Kick-Off.

Just when we get the ball, he sneezes.

Boo!

Care if I tickle your ribs?

I'll just sneak up here on my belly and get him.

Did you say 38-24-26?

Where did you say the ball is?

I wonder if he'll need a facial.

Which way
now, coach?

Did you hear the latest joke?

ADVERTISEMENTS

Opportunities Like Edison had are WAITING FOR YOU

The inventions of Thomas Edison have affected the lives of people everywhere. They have created entire industries — ours, for example.

Under America's Free Enterprise system, inventive people like Edison can expect special compensations — profit, honor and satisfaction.

The hope of attaining such rewards has been one of our nation's greatest incentives to progress. It is a goal that prods imaginative minds in their quests for new products and methods.

Not everyone can be a Thomas Edison. However, every trained, dedicated graduate can anticipate a full measure of our society's rewards. All it takes is a willingness to work harder and contribute more.
